February 17 will be the occasion of a theater party at Pol's for the benefit of the convention fund. The committee on the trip to the convention, to be held at Richmond, Va., early in the spring, met last Thursday evening. P. R. Pullman, chairman of the committee, sees success ahead of his efforts.

Lebanon Lodge Confers E. A. Degree.

Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, F. A. M., at its last communication conferred the E. A. degree, with Senior Warden Mattias B. Yorgie presiding. This was a large attendance of members, and the officers were highly complimented for the manner in which the degree was conferred. Worshipful Master Charles D. Shackelford announced that he would call a special meeting for January 20, at 6:30 o'clock p. m., when the M. M. degree will be conferred.

Trowel Club Enlarging Its Field.

On January 3 the Trowel Club of the Geological Survey decided to enlarge its field to include the Reclamation Service, the Bureau of Mines, and the General Land Office. This will be of interest to Masons who are employed in these bureaus, who may communicate with Mr. A. G. McChesney, of the Reclamation Service; Mr. P. M. Reifkin, Bureau of Mines; and Mr. A. F. Dunnington, General Land Office. All Master Masons in good standing, and members of the above-named bureaus, are invited to join, subject to election.

Visitation to Royal Arch Chapters.

The Grand Chapter visitations began January 8, when Washington Chapter, No. 2, R. A. M., was visited. Music was furnished by an orchestra. The address of the evening was delivered by Third Assistant Pastmaster General Alexander M. Dockery. A presentation of a testimonial to the speaker was made by Past Grand High Priest Mathew Trimble, and a presentation was made to Grand Lecturer Orville Drown by Past High Priest William J. Satterfield.

Capital Chapter, No. 11, R. A. M., was the second one visited. This occurred on January 9, when the orchestra for the occasion was composed of Benjamin J. Wrightman, violin; Samuel F. Compton, clarinet; Charles S. Woodin, cornet; R. A. Smith, piano. Vocal solos were given by Mayne R. Coe and Robert L. Kanzer. Roy Fulkerson was the speaker of the evening, and kept his hearers in a happy mood with his original humor. Rev. William W. Edens presented a testimonial to the speaker.

The third visitation of the series was made last Monday night to Mount Vernon Chapter, No. 3, R. A. M. The speaker of the evening was Judge Ivory G. Kimball, who gave an illustrated lecture on his travels on the Pacific Coast. Music was furnished by a quartet.

Potomac Chapter, No. 8, R. A. M., was visited last Tuesday night, when the feature of the evening, following the regular visitation ceremony, was an address by the Rev. Luther H. Waring.

Busy Week for Odd Fellows.

This week will be a busy one in Odd Fellowship. Tuesday lodge visits to the Grand Encampment will hold its semi-annual session, and elect a grand scribe in the place of Patriarch Joseph Burroughs, who held that office for so many years, with honor, himself and the Grand Encampment, and until his recent death. Other matters of interest to the encampment will come up for consideration, and Grand Patriarch J. D. Yoakley desires an unusually large attendance on that evening.

On Wednesday evening the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of the District of Columbia, will hold a session in the auditorium of the Odd Fellows' Hall, when all past grand officers for the last year who have not received the Grand Lodge degree, are requested to present themselves in the blue room at 8 o'clock. That purpose, Officers of the Grand Lodge will be elected, and the committee appointed at the last session of the Grand Lodge to revise the Grand and subordinate lodge constitutions, will render a report. Other matters of interest to the order will come up for action.

Installation at Fred D. Stuart Encampment.

Last Tuesday evening Fred D. Stuart Encampment, No. 7, held an interesting session, and the officers elected to serve during the next six months were installed by Grand Patriarch J. D. Yoakley and his corps of Grand Encampment officers. Owing to the illness of several of the members of the encampment, preventing their attendance, the program that had been arranged by Patriarch P. H. Leary for the occasion had to be postponed until some later date. There was a large attendance, and a very pleasant evening was passed socially, closing with refreshments in the blue room.

Eastern Lodge Holds Banner Session.

Eastern Lodge, No. 7, held one of its summer sessions last Wednesday evening. This lodge was instituted in February, 1913, and a committee was appointed to arrange for a proper celebration of the lodge's seventh-fifth birthday. Past Grand Harry L. Andersen, the chairman of the committee, and is making every effort to make it the greatest event in Eastern Lodge for many years. The new initiatory degree term, under the direction of Past Grand Andersen, conferred that degree upon four candidates. Degree work has been postponed on account of the session of the Grand Lodge, and will be held until the following Wednesday evening.

Golden Rule Lodge Confers Degree.

Golden Rule Lodge, No. 21, last Tuesday evening conferred the first degree in full form on several candidates. A large number was rendered in excellent manner by the lodge degree team, aided by members from other lodges. There was quite a large attendance of the members. Next Tuesday evening the second degree will be conferred, and arrangements have been made to make the occasion unusually interesting.

Canton Washington in Special Session.

Saturday evening, January 10, pursuant to a call from Capt. W. P. Humphrey, Canton Washington, No. 1, held a special communication, and a committee was appointed to arrange for a celebration of the lodge's anniversary. The speaker of the evening was Joseph Burroughs, who was one of the very few charter members of the Patriarch's Militant, then known as the I. O. O. F., Uniform Battalion. The exercises will be held in Canton room, Thursday evening, February 5. There was an unusually large number of Canton members present at the special meeting. The speaker of the evening, Joseph Burroughs, made a beautiful address, and the exercises were held in a most interesting manner.

Assembly Dances Popular.

Canton Washington, No. 1, held another of its popular assembly dances last Wednesday evening, the first under the new managing committee. A large number of the friends of the canton were present. The committee of arrangements are hard at work arranging for the future dances of the series, and it is reported that the dances will be held in the canton, and will be greatly aided to the enjoyment of the coming dances. The next assembly dance of Canton Washington, No. 1, will be held Wednesday evening, January 23.

Joint Session of Committees of Ruth Rebekah Lodge.

There was a meeting called for a joint session of the committee on Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, on ways and means and entertainment at the residence of the noble grand, Mrs. Eva Buey, Holmes place, to arrange a program for the regular sessions of the lodge and introduce a program at each session during the present six months' term of the noble grand. The meeting was well attended and much enthusiasm was manifested in the proposed arrangements, the nature of which will be reported to the lodge at its session tomorrow evening, when the Rebekah degree will be conferred, and all members of sister lodges are cordially invited to be present.

Harmony Lodge—Degree Team Rehearsal.

Past Grand August Kruse, chairman of the committee on fraternal news in Harmony Lodge, No. 3, reports that there was a good attendance at the session of the lodge last Wednesday, and the newly instituted degree team under his direction rehearsed the initiatory degree. Owing to the postponement of the lodge last Wednesday evening, degree work has been postponed in the lodge until Wednesday evening, January 23. Members of all lodges are cordially invited to be present at all sessions of the lodge.

Esther Rebekah Lodge Holds Big Session.

With an attendance of over 150 members of the Rebekah branch of the order in this jurisdiction, Esther Rebekah Lodge, No. 3, held its first regular meeting of the year in its hall in Seventh street last Monday evening. The event of the evening was the installation of the newly elected officers for the ensuing term.

The business of the evening being hurried through, the installing officers appeared, who were Special Deputy Grand and by the color guard of three soldiers and three sailors, each carrying an American flag. Seven new members were initiated, four of them a marine, and two sailors, who saw service on the Oregon during the campaign at Manila and Santiago. Inspector General Ferre reported that veteran members of the order in this country are taking much interest in the bill before Congress for the erection of a proper monument over the grave of Gen. Lawton at Manila, and that efforts would be made to have this legislation passed during this season.

The report of the organization showed the camp to be in a splendid financial condition, and efforts will be made to increase the membership during the coming year.

their homes at the conclusion of the temple business. All were feeling joyful and enthusiastic over the work outlined for the immediate future. When it was decided that one of the sisters, Mrs. H. E. Smith, was suddenly taken quite ill. A physician was quickly summoned and it was discovered that she was suffering from a paralytic stroke. It is hoped by her many friends that she will rapidly recover, and soon be able to return to the temple, where she has always been a regular attendant and an active and useful member.

The two temples of Pythian Sisters in this domain have received an invitation from the reception and entertainment committee to assist in the entertainment of visitors during jubilee week, at which time it is already known that great numbers of Pythian Sisters will accompany their husbands to this city. This auxiliary branch of the order is one of which all Pythians are proud, and the sisters in this domain will respond cheerfully to the invitation of the committee.

Grand Lecturer Dickman Organizing Special Team.

Grand Lecturer Dickman, to whom has been assigned duty of organizing a special third-rank team in this city, for the purpose of conferring that rank upon all candidates desired by their respective lodges, reports that he is making excellent progress in that direction, and it is thought that most of those receiving the first rank in the big class will be given the third rank by this special team. It is not intended to confer this rank upon all at the same time, but will perhaps be extended over several evenings.

Hotel Reservations Expected to Reach 10,000.

It has been learned that already something over 1,000 hotel reservations have been engaged by knights from distant domains for jubilee week, and it is thought that by the first of February this number will be increased to 10,000 or more. The public comfort committee is already receiving daily requests for bookings, and during the last week a delegation of 400 from the State of Iowa alone was provided for at one of the large hotels.

Constitutional Council, No. 23, held its regular meeting on Tuesday night at its hall, 43 Tenth street northwest, with a very large attendance to witness the installation of the officers, which was conducted by Deputy State Councilor Grover E. Payne, a member of Potomac Council, No. 20. Addresses were made by Past State Councilor William L. Jenkins, and interesting speeches were made by the members and visitors.

Mount Tribe, No. 13, held its regular meeting on Thursday with its chiefs present. Applications of several palefaced were received. Important matters came up for consideration.

The councils of the Degree of Pocatonia are making great headway in getting members into that degree which helps to make member better in his attendance at the tribes.

Modern Woodmen.

The annual installation of officers of Columbia Camp, No. 1322, Modern Woodmen of America, was held last Thursday evening in their camp hall in Pythian Temple. The following officers were installed for the year of 1914: Consul, William C. Boteler; past consul, John H. Redmond; adviser, William D. Weekly; banker, Orlando R. Bowman; clerk, Frederick A. Boyce; escort, John L. Landy; watchman, F. L. Mues; sentry, L. C. Cronise; camp physicians, Drs. S. C. Johnson, E. J. Gunning and Grant S. Barnhart; trustee for three-year term, Martin W. Hyson; district deputy, H. H. Millard, assisted by Consul Drown acting as head escort, installed the officers in a most splendid manner. Head Consul Millard highly complimented the camp for having such an able body of officers to conduct its affairs for the coming year. He predicted all kinds of success and good things for Columbia Camp for 1914. The installation services were public, and the hall was crowded with the members, families and their friends. Prof. Edwin R. Hart and his gallant corps of musicians furnished many beautiful selections during the course of the evening. A most enjoyable entertainment was given for a few minutes with some of the latest and most popular con songs, and his excellence in real old-time con shouting was highly appreciated by every one present. The next business was many songs and dances by the "Singing Crows," famous all through the East for their singing and dancing. Dr. S. C. Johnson favored with recitations. The entertainment committee served refreshments. During the program Past Consul F. E. Reppert presented the retiring consul, John H. Redmond, with a beautiful emblem ring, as a token of the esteem of the members of the camp for his efficient services during the past year. Past Consul Redmond responded in a most splendid manner and promised the camp that he would endeavor to be present as much as possible in the future.
